TOLLESBORO CELEBRATION.

How the Seventy-Eighth Anniversary Was Observed in Lewis County.

As previously announced, the Odd fellows of Lewis county observed the Seventy-eighth Anniversary of the Order by a reunion of the Lewis county Lodges at Tolliesboro yesterday.

The weather couldn't have been more delightful if it had been made to order, and surely the Craft and the citizens could not have wished for a greater or more joyous gathering.

Flags and emblems were seen on every barge, and the quaint, quiet old town was completely surrendered to the Oddfellows and their guests.

Vancouver Lodge, headed by the Alum City Band, and Concord Lodge joined Tolliesboro Lodge in a street parade, after which as many as could get into the M. E. Church, South, were entertained with a formal program of exercises.

The opening prayer was by the Rev. H. J. Ramey of the M. E. Church, followed by a few introductory remarks.

Mr. Hal. C. Curran of this city sang a beautiful solo, on which he received many well deserved compliments.

The speaking began with a short talk by Mr. Thomas A. Davis of this city, followed by Mr. C. L. Sallee, also of Maysville, whose remarks were singularly appropriate and well chosen, the speaker commanding the closest attention throughout.

Mr. Curran followed in a neat speech, when the assembly dismissed with the Benediction by the Rev. Politt.

Then came a bounteous supper served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church, at which all Oddfellows and their ladies partook most heartily.

Last evening Tolliesboro Lodge concluded the exercises by initiating six new members.

Altogether, it was a delightful occasion, and Lewis county Oddfellows have cause for congratulation.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.
